Respecting Rights at School

Respecting Rights at School

We all have rights.

It is important that our rights are respected everywhere, including at school.

We all need to make sure we respect our own rights and the rights of others.

Respecting Rights at School

I have the right to be educated.
My education should help me achieve my best and express my talents.

I will respect this right by trying my best and listening to others.

I will let other people get on with their work.

Respecting Rights at School

I have the right to play and relax.

I will respect this right by working hard in lessons, and playing and relaxing in my break times.

Respecting Rights at School

I have the right to play with other children.

I will respect this right by letting others play with me and join in with games and activities.

I will be kind to others and use words to sort out any disagreements.

I will ask an adult for help if I can't solve the problem with words.

Respecting Rights at School

I have the right to share my views and say what I think, as long as it is legal.

I will respect this right by listening to others and respecting their views.

Respecting Rights at School

I have the right to a name.

I will respect this right by calling others by their legal name, or the name that they prefer to be known by.

Respecting Rights at School

I have the right to be warm.

I will respect this right by making sure I do not waste energy.

Respecting Rights at School

I have the right to be safe and healthy, with good quality healthcare, nutritious food and clean water.

I will respect this right by taking care of myself and making healthy choices.

I will behave safely at school.

Respecting Rights at School

I have the right to believe what I choose, and to practise my religion.

I will respect this right by letting others believe what they choose, even if their beliefs are different to my own.

Respecting Rights at School

I have the right to information.

I will respect this right by looking for information that is appropriate and is not harmful to myself or others.